Will Wonders Never Cease? Ike, Adlai Will Also Be at Sun Political Rally!

Ike and Nixon, Adlai and Sparkman, Taft and Truman, and Joe McCarthy, too — they'll all be at the free political rally which will be held Tuesday night, October 28, at Acalanes High School auditorium under sponsorship of The SUN.

"What's that?" you gasp. "I thought it was to be two debates — one between Assembly candidates Donald Doyle, Republican, and Harold Mutnick, Democrat, and the other between Congressional candidates John F. Baldwin Jr., Republican, and Robert L. Condon, Democrat."

That's right — the debates will highlight the 8 p.m. gathering. But, also, Ike, Adlai et al will be "present" — in the persons of actors assuming the roles of the characters in a hilarious one-act political satire by Joe Connor of Lafayette.

The skit, "Sweet Land of Liberty," will pull no punches in its good-natured ribbing. Author Connor is a bit coy about the full details, but he vows the show will be a hit. He formerly taught English at the University of Washington and is account executive for the Reinhardt advertising agency.

Producer and director of "Sweet Land of Liberty" is the author's wife, Wilma Connor, well-known for her many community activities.

Deans Urge 'Yes' on Prop. 2 and 24

A vote of "yes" on Propositions 2 and 24 in the November election was urged by Lily Lahti, dean of girls at Acalanes High School, and David Stewart, dean of boys, as they spoke at the season's first meeting of the Orinda High School Mothers Club Monday at the home of Mrs. Nathan Gray.

Miss Lahti explained that a crisis faces the schools as operation costs soar while population increases have multiplied the demands for school services.

Proposition 2 increases the state's share of annual school support for operating costs by about $33 per school child, or less than 10 cents per child per day, she explained.

Proposition 24 is a vote to replenish the state loan fund from which districts already bonded to the limit may borrow to build desperately needed classrooms, Miss Lahti said.

She added that the deans, counselling staff and teachers are all at Acalanes to help in solving problems as well as to teach, and urged all parents to become acquainted with them.

STEWART SPOKE of the seriousness of the teen-age driving problem and said that all boys and girls driving cars to school must have their parents' signatures on a permission paper.

He explained also that under California law, boys or girls who work outside of school should have their parents' signatures on a work permit. The law provides that a boy or girl under 18 years of age may only work eight hours a day, including school hours.

A question and answer period followed. Refreshments were served by the tea committee for the meeting, which had Mrs. H. B. Oliphant as chairman and Mesdames R. A. Stark and R. D. Dodden serving on it.

Professor Davis Cites Urgency Of Road Problems

"Money being spent on road construction is not in proportion to the amount people are spending on more automobiles."

That paradox was offered as an illustration of current highway problems by Professor Harner Davis, director of the Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering at the University of California, when he addressed the October 9 membership meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation.

THE MEETING was held at Orinda Community Church, and was co-hosted by the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee.

Professor Davis discussed the use of toll roads in the East.

Federation Chairman Elliot J. Hartman reported on progress of freeway plans for the Orinda, Lafayette and Monument areas.

ELECTION of officers is slated for the annual meeting November 25, which will probably be held in the Walnut Creek area. According to Hartman, the board will appoint a nominating committee before then, since no suggestions were made at last week's session regarding naming of such a group.

Currently, the federation is conducting an intensified membership drive, with the Mt. Diablo Junior Chamber of Commerce actively assisting.

Lafayette Girl New Polio Victim

One new polio victim, a four-year-old girl was reported with the disease this week, according to Dr. H. L. Blum, county health director.

The child was reported to us Wednesday, Dr. Blum said.

There are now 10 victims in Lafayette-Orinda-Walnut Creek. One is at home, five have been in the County Hospital, and the other victims are in the San Francisco and East Bay Children's Hospitals.

The county health department is not responsible for medical care but is interested in checking with victims after they have recovered, Dr. Blum said.

"We check on follow-up treatments and keep needed statistics," he added.

There are as many cases now as 10 years ago, Dr. Blum said, but 10 years ago doctors were not at ways aware of the disease. It is because of this that there seem to be so many cases coming up, so often.

When asked about the new polio vaccine cure, Dr. Blum stated he had not yet seen the cure in action, but that the men who have reported the remedy are among the most outstanding and brilliant men in this field in the world.

Looks Like Scout Drive Tops 1951 But Below Goal

With indications pointing to the raising of more than last year's $20,000 "cleanup" work was in progress this week in the Joint Girl Scout-Boy Scout Fund Drive for the Greater Diablo Area.

However, it appeared possible that the $39,000 goal of the 1952 drive, which was scheduled to end yesterday, would not be reached. As of last weekend, incomplete results showed contributions approaching the $18,000 mark.

A FINAL REPORT meeting is set for next Thursday night at the home of Mrs. George N. Jensen, Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council president, at 1082 Rahara Drive, Lafayette. George H. Macey, campaign chairman, urged all workers and captains to push their efforts to completion this week.

As of October 9, the picture included:

LARGE GIFTS from 30 individuals throughout the area totaled $15,024. According to the chairman of the large gifts committee, Walter Boysen, more than 120 people were still to be contacted.

In the business division, George H. Conner, chairman, reported $1,919 collected, with 193 prospects still to be seen. Conner stated, too, that more than 20 large industries which employ many workers from the Diablo area had been approached for contributions.

MRS. JEANNE MADSEN, community chairman for Walnut Creek, reported the job nearly finished there in the residential division, with $4,681.60 in.

Duncan Knudsen reported $1,629 for Lafayette, but not more than 20 percent of his solicitors had completed their calls.

IN ORINDA, the report of $1,750, given by Mrs. George Fink, represented only a small portion of the Moraga side of the Crossroads. (Early this week, according to Mrs. Jensen, it looked as if the Orinda residential drive would raise $5,000.)

James Thomson, chairman for Pleasant Hill, reported a total of $2,010 from approximately 60 percent of possible contacts.

In Ygnacio Valley, $350 had been turned in, according to Jo A. Shockey, chairman.

Roy McCoy, chairman of the Danville-Diablo-Alamo area, reported that he had no figures available.

Army Recalls Brooks

Roy F. Brooks, members of the Orinda Fire Department, has been recalled into active military duty with the Army and is to report October 30 in Texas. He has been with the Fire Department for over a year.

'State of the Union' Opens Thursday; Dramateurs Put On Finishing Touches

The cast of "State of the Union," his many fine interpretations in past Dramateur productions. Last year he received Alameda Little Theater's "best actor" award.

Also included in the cast are Dorothy Hanford as the candidate's wife, Edward O'Brien, Lou Warner, Patricia Winkworth, Monique Eschen, Donald French, Phil Simmons, Bruce Winkworth, Leonard Nachman, Frank Wright, Luke Kentfield, Betty Reynolds, Frances Omo, Margaret Kozak and Keene Pettengill.

ASSISTING KENTFIELD, the play's producer, are Malcolm Lowman, stage manager; James Stanislawsky, set designer; Jeanette Wright, properties; Barbara Warmond, costume supervisor; Patricia Winkworth, publicity; Wirtabel Harris, tickets; Norma Betz, programs, and Hilda Probert, assistant to the director.

Those interested in obtaining tickets may contact Mrs. Harris at Orinda 2460.

Kept up to the minute by revamping some of the necessarily dated lines, one finds the Lindsay and Crouse opus runs a fascinating parallel to events of the past six months. Anyone affected by the political fervor of the present campaign won't fail to find food for thought in the Dramateurs' presentation of "State of the Union."

HEADING THE CAST list is Robert Atkinson, who will step upon the stage for the first time locally, as the presidential aspirant, Grant Matthews — a leading industrialist who is drawn into the political fold.

Atkinson is a graduate student in the University of California Law School, and has been active in producing, writing and acting in university productions — including Axetraganza of 1950 and the 1951 Senior Show, both in collaboration with Dick Larkey of Orinda. He was last seen in the leading role of the Martinez Little Theater's production of "Blithe Spirit."

A RECENT ADDITION to the cast is Harry Rasmussen in the role of the labor leader, William Hardy. Rasmussen will be remembered for

Earthquake Is Highlight of Week's Weather

Little sunshine, no rain, some fog, and a well felt earthquake is what Orinda weather was composed of during the week from October 9 through Wednesday.

Hottest day of the week was last Friday when but 80 degrees was reported. That same night, a chill of 42 degrees was noticed and this proved to be the coldest point of the week.

Last Sunday, at 4:45 p.m. a good size earthquake shook Orinda residents and caused a lot of talk. A complete story of the quake can be found elsewhere in this issue.

Early morning risers were greeted by quite a bit of fog, but thanks to Old Man Weather, no rain was reported in the area.

Mothers Club to Hear Talks on Pacifica Trend

Harry Jackson, executive vice-president of Jackson's Home Furnishings stores in Oakland and Northern California will discuss the "Pacifica" trend in living before the Orinda Mothers Club meeting Tuesday at 1:45 p.m. at the Orinda School.

Hailed in all leading home magazines as the originator of "Pacifica," Jackson will outline the philosophy behind the trend, explaining how the islands-theme program was first conceived as a home furnishings design idea in 1949 and has since developed into a complete way of life, embracing such facets as architecture, landscape design, apparel, food, entertainment and individual point of view.

WITH JACKSON on the Mothers Club program will be Ruth Straehle, Jackson's fashion coordinator, who will show fabrics in the "Pacifica" mood and explain how "Pacifica" furnishings can be used to create an atmosphere of low-tension living.

CHILD CARE for mothers desiring to attend the meeting will be available at Glorietta School and at the Orinda Community Church at a charge of 50 cents per child.

Mrs. Miles B. Sutcliffe, vice-president and program chairman, will be in charge of the program. Hostesses will be Glorietta third grade room mothers: Mrs. David W. Hiller, Mrs. George Fink and Mrs. Henry Harris.

G. O. P. Women To Have Discussion On Propositions

The final pre-election meeting of the Republican Women's Club of Orinda will be held Thursday in the social hall of the Orinda Community Church at 10 a.m.

A non-partisan presentation of the controversial propositions on the November ballot will highlight the program. Mesdames Thomas St. Hill, E. Wiser, G. W. Bentley, Ned deLaveaga and K. B. Morrish will discuss the propositions.

All precinct captains and workers are asked to be present so they may get this important information to pass on to their telephone committees.

Mrs. Thomas Barrows is program chairman.

Mrs. Haywood Gathings of 151 Camino Don Miguel, precinct chairman, has made plans for a precinct captain's meeting to be held at her home at 10 a.m. Monday, October 27. Final election day plans will be discussed at this time.

Volunteers have been asked to help with the mailing of campaign literature during the next two weeks. Those wishing to help have been asked to contact Mrs. Donald Krotz at Orinda 2045.

Part of Orinda Given Lowered PGE Rate Setup

The California Public Utilities Commission yesterday approved reclassification from Zone 6 to Zone 5 for Pacific Gas and Electric rates for sections of Moraga Meadows, Moraga Gardens and Moraga Woodlands in Orinda.

Part of its decision authorizing PG&E to increase its over-all rates approximately 16 per cent, the Orinda ruling means that residents in the affected area will pay a rate of $4.51 per 100 kilowatt hours per month, as against $4.41, as at present.

Had the area remained in Class 6, residents would have to pay $5.43, the newly-authorized Class 6 rate.

PRESENTATION of the case for lowered rating was made to the P. U. C. several months ago by Peter Veitch, representing the Orinda Association. This was followed by a survey by Henry Worthington, PG&E district manager in Berkeley, and A. B. Moor, commercial representative of the company.

The company survey found the section to contain 852 customers and a density of 52 customers per pole-mile, thus qualifying for the lower rate classification.

The 16 per cent over-all rate increase allowed by P. U. C. followed hearings on the company application for a 22 per cent increase.

RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMERS, on the average, will pay an increase of about 80 cents per month. The new rates will become effective for service rendered on or after November 10.

Commercial and industrial customers will pay an additional $13,450,000 per year, or 41 per cent of the total increase, according to estimates by commission engineers.

The 1,133,000 residential customers — 79 per cent of the total 1,400,000 customers — will pay an additional $10,957,000 or about 33 per cent of the total annual increase.

PG&E REQUESTED a total annual increase in gross revenue of $45,704,000, but the commission reduced this amount by $12,714,000. According to commission computations, the increase for the 1,400,000 customers in 46 of the state's 58 counties will amount to a total of $30,642,000 annually.

Annual net return to PG&E, after payment of income and franchise taxes, will be approximately $15,000,000.

DeLaveaga presided during the meeting.

Thieves Break In Orinda Hardware

An attempt to break into the safe of the Orinda Hardware store at 56 Moraga Highway Monday night was disclosed yesterday by Inspector Norman Wilson.

"Thieves attempted to open the safe but were unable to do so and nothing was reported as missing," Wilson said.

"I don't know how they got into the store," M. E. Keyser, owner of Orinda Hardware commented, "unless they hid somewhere and were looked in when we closed."

Deputy Clinton Jones is now working on the case, Wilson reported.

County Promises Public Hearings on 1/4-Acre Lot Plan

Following a two-and-a-half-hour conference on the controversial quarter-acre lot limitation proposal, Supervisor H. L. Cummings and District Attorney Francis Collins Wednesday afternoon promised full public hearings before any action by the county.

The conference was with the County Planning Commission and the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Lot Size and Zoning Methods, Sewage Disposal, Water Pollution, Flood Control and Drainage, headed by George Cardinet Jr. of Concord.

The quarter-acre recommendation was recently made by a subcommittee of Cardinet's committee, and set off fireworks in the form of protests by improvement association representatives throughout this area and organization of the Independent Citizens' Committee on Zoning, headed by William A. Bailey Jr. of 11 Alderwood Lane in the Walden area of Walnut Creek.

Bailey and two members of his group, W. H. Somerton of Lafayette and Boone Robinson of Orinda, were present at the conference as spectators. Although the session was not a public hearing, the Committee on Zoning representatives, at Bailey's request, had been invited.

TOWARD the close of the conference, when Cummings asked if the Board of Supervisors and the Planning Commission had heard enough, Bailey asked:

"What, no public hearing, Mr. Chairman?"

Cummings and Collins then promised that public hearings would be held before any county action, and that objections to the quarter-acre limitation would have opportunity to submit alternate proposals.

The conference was marked by sharp disagreement by G. S. Deardorff and Grant Burton with L. E. Mullen, Cardinet and Gerould L. Gill as to the merits of the proposal. Deardorff, a member of the advisory subcommittee, declared he was opposed to the recommendation. Mullen, president of the Contra Costa County Title Company, is subcommittee chairman. Gill and Burton, while not on the subcommittee, are on Cardinet's general committee, which was named several months ago by the supervisors.

BOTH BURTON and Deardorff are farmers. Burton stated two or three times that the Farm Bureau zoning committee is opposed to quarter-acre maximums and desires half-acre minimums for individual homesites.

At one point, a Planning Commission member asked if the quarter-acre limitation was proposed for presently zoned Residential-Agricultural areas. Mullen replied the proposal was for all zoned areas.

The Wednesday conference was held in Martinez City Hall headquarters of construction work going on at the Hall of Records. The session followed a meeting of the Independent Citizens' Committee on Zoning at Lafayette Town Hall Sunday night. At this meeting an eight-man board of directors was elected, on a regional basis, and the following temporary officers were named:

William A. Bailey Jr. of the Walden Improvement Association, chairman; R. H. Biggs, San Ramon Improvement Association, first vice-chairman; W. H. Somerton, Lafayette Improvement Association, second vice-chairman; Donn Siegerson, Orinda Association, third vice-chairman; R. R. Nesbitt agreed to act as secretary-treasurer.

Bailey said yesterday that another meeting of his group would probably be held in a week or so.

AT THE SUNDAY night gathering, attended by representatives of 24 improvement associations and two farm organizations, S. H. McAllister of the Lafayette Improvement Association stated:

"After seven years of study, a master zoning plan was agreed upon by the Board of Supervisors, based on the wishes of the majority of property owners in various regions as determined with the cooperation of the improvement associations. This was done to insure the orderly growth of the county and to protect the property owners from any unscrupulous owner who might wish to subdivide into small lots against the wishes of neighboring property owners."

He added that "acceptance of the recommendation on lot size of the Citizens' Committee would destroy the Master Plan and lead to changes in character of residential sections without consideration of the interests of home owners in surrounding areas."

THE MEETING went on record instructing the acting chairman to request full hearings on the Cardinet report and to ask the Board of Supervisors for permission to send representatives to the conference of the Board of Supervisors with the Planning Commission and the Cardinet Committee on Wednesday.

In reply to Cardinet's recent criticism of the newly-formed committee on Zoning, Bailey last week declared:

"OUR COMMITTEE on Zoning has no objection whatsoever to quarter-acre or smaller lots for those regions in which the majority of the property owners prefer such lot sizes. However, we do object strongly to one-quarter acre maximum in those areas in which the majority of property owners prefer larger lot sizes."

"We also object to the fact that the appointed Citizens' Committee and the subcommittee appointed by Mr. Cardinet represent principally certain special interests while there is no representation from the major improvement associations of the county."

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

HERE WE SITS CONTEMPLATING THE PAST and coordinating the future. The past is a cinch — a cross-country jaunt about which we will tell you later. The future, however, is a confused period fraught with a labyrinth of problems intimately concerned with such mechanical impediments as washing machine, vacuum cleaner, ironing apparatus, etcetera. Someone has said that the joy of going on a trip is dwarfed in comparison to the joy of coming home. Quite true — if you could skip the first three days.

However — some trip impressions — just willy-nilly and without proper sequence, because we wrote them while riding in the car and this is the way it came out.

AND WHAT HAPPENED to the "R" in New England? Going along the Maine coast, we stopped at Ogonquit, hungry, as usual, and attempted to find out what we could do about it. The advice given was that we should go to "Yaak Hahbah" where it would be easy to "paak" our "caah." We really had the "meagrams and vapours" over that one when we discovered the place was called York Harbor.

Our luck in Providence, Rhode Island, was indeed providential. We stayed in the typical New England home of dear friends who loved us enough to go all over the house turning the silver upside down, to investigate the hall marks, to knock our knees against the hand-hubbed patina of fine old woods and to ask a lot of darn fool questions about the oil-painted ancestors hung in gold frames on the wall.

We dined at a gentlemen's eating club where the annual cost of haircuts is incorporated in the dues. Wonder what the Barbers' Fair Practice and Competition Association (if there be such) would think about that?

The quaint (good old overworked "quaint" — but can't think of a better word) 17th and 18th Century houses anachronistically back right up against the new Providence Insurance Building, where the boiler room is done in soft shades of dove gray, yellow and tangerine with touches of black. It has not previously been our custom to investigate boiler rooms — as a matter of fact we are not sure we have ever been invited into one before, but this particular boiler room was such an immaculate symphony of the new Siamese shades (King and I influence, no doubt) that we thought you should know about it.

One parting personal note of Providence: Our New England hostess had thoughtfully given us the wrapper from a tin of English curry, knowing perfectly well that without it we would never be able to remember the name when trying to inveigle Mr. Orinda Store into getting some for us. We put it in our purse and each time thereafter that our purse was opened, out wafted the effluvia of exotic warm curry instead of (as in the case of other Eastern ladies) the effluvia of exotic warm "My Sin," "Dangerous Moment," "Surrender" or some other concoction of the perfumers' trade.

ARE YOU BY ANY CHANCE A MEMBER of the truck drivers' fraternity? We don't know whether we are or not but we certainly tried. Made a new friend in a gas station who was hauling five complete loads of household furniture across the country (our husband obtained this data, so obviously the statistics are correct).

He gave us all the dope on the signals they use for passing information to each other by blinking their lights or tooting their horns. After that, whenever one of those Big Berthas blinked us to pass we went careening around its enormous bulk, joyfully tooting and blinking all of our signals at once — a maneuver calculated to impress the driver with our desire to be chummy but possibly causing some question in his mind as to whether we meant "thank you," "weighing station coming up," "there is a cop chasing you" or "meet us at the next hot dog joint for lunch."

Getting back to our truck friend — once he noticed an M. G. at a rakish angle in the ditch, so he stopped to help. The helpee was no less than the late John Garfield, who was so grateful for the aid that he sent our friend a puppy and, on friend's subsequent trip to California, John Garfield rode around with him in Big Bertha for one whole day. Curiously enough, friend resembled Mr. Garfield a bit.

WHILE IN EASTERN CANADA, the scenery was so beautiful and our husband was in one of his "country" moods, so we elected to stay in one of those delightful wayside inns where supposedly someone is waiting for you with a cup of steaming tea from a well-polished copper pot, to be served in front of a crackling fire.

Well, everything was lovely-dory except that our timing was a bit off. We got lost and wasted so much time making wrong left turns that we turned up about 10 p. m. and no one was around but the pretty teen-aged daughter of the household and Herman, the golden cocker spaniel. They were equally charmed to see us, but for completely different reasons. Daughter promptly called "Mum" on the phone at the neighbor's and must have conveyed the general impression that we were fairly respectable looking because Mum gave the go signal for us to check in and pay our five bucks in advance. Herman, on the other hand, was possessed of the impression that there was a superior variety of dog bone in our suitcase. He tried every possible way to find out and, come to think of it, he was a fairly ingenious little dog.

In the meantime we were poyeyed over the house, so Daughter took us on the Cook's tour and explained that is was built in seventeen hundred and something or other and gave us the history of each of many beautiful antique pieces of furniture, including a thoroughly uncomfortable but adorable little Victorian sofa. The sofa seemed to inspire her gracious hostessing to an all-time high, so she asked if we would like to spend the rest of the evening until Mum came home sitting on it to read. Our husband was heard to strangle a remark between his teeth to the effect that he had sat for the last five days driving an automobile from Detroit and doubted if he would ever be able to sit down comfortably again.

At dawn we saw the misty haze comfortably napping on top of the shrubs and trees, giving an eerie effect like the oils of the early impressionists who liked to paint pictures of haze sitting on the furze. At least, we suppose it was dawn. What with losing three hours' flying across the continent, running into and out of daylight saving at various places and picking up the hours again on our way back, and then losing daylight saving completely, we NEVER knew what time it was.

AND SPEAKING OF HOTELS — one little country hostelry in Iowa had an enormous rope, knotted every few feet, tied to the window.

We suggested to our husband that it might be for the purpose of tying him up for the night and our husband suggested that if we hadn't spent so many of our palmier days traveling all over the world and had spent more time in Iowa we would know that the rope was a fire escape — just throw it out the window and proceed with caution.

The road near Cheyenne was luminescent with cottonwoods whose yellow leaves, intense with savage color, quivered in the clear sunlight. The strata layers formed mountainous plateaus above us from which a technician Indian, complete with bow and arrow, could have popped us one in the tires in the best Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer tradition.

AND NOW BACK TO ORINDA — what is it that lady golfers have that other people don't?

Why, control over the weather, of course. Two weeks ago all of Orinda was boiled — but last week, out of deference to the lady golfers, no doubt, the sun cooled down to a comfortable range of degrees.

So the following tournamenters qualified, got into various flights, turned up early on the mornings of Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, with these results for the Fall Handicap:

First Flight winner, Mrs. W. M. Noble; runner-up, Mrs. J. M. Small; defeated winner, Mrs. J. L. Sharp.

Second Flight winner, Mrs. S. F. Jensen; runner-up, Mrs. F. Tussing; defeated winner, Mrs. R. H. Bolman.

Third Flight winner, Mrs. R. D. Adams; runner-up, Mrs. J. H. Tyson; defeated winner, Mrs. G. H. Parker.

Fourth Flight winner, Mrs. R. B. Douglas; runner-up, Mrs. S. A. Schaff; defeated winner, Mrs. A. P. Kane.

Low net, Mrs. W. E. Kilgo.

Second low net, tied by Mrs. J. W. Small, Mrs. Arthur Somers and Margaret Dant.

That is all.

Following dinner, a screen was set up and Dr. Murray Groves showed pictures, with commentary by Mrs. Groves, about their three-week motor trip with friends to the Black Hills of South Dakota last summer.

Later, Mr. Meakin showed his priceless book of old stamps and paper currency of the United States, Russia, Austria, Czechoslovakia and Germany, all used before and during the great wars of these countries.

PATTER ON THE PARTY LINE

By PATRICIA JELTON

DEAR GENTLE READERS, may we come out from behind our cloak of the editorial "we" just long enough to wonder how in heck I ever got us into this bind of having to write a column every Monday? Monday! No sensible citizen is even stirring his bones on that fateful day, much less stirring up his poor feverish, throbbing brain in a futile search for facts and fantasies stored there during the previous week.

And what's worse, I lost my notes last night somewhere along the trail from the Country Club to the X-Roads. Suppose this item should be listed on the classified page, as we and our neighbors have discovered that the Sun's classifieds bring the most amazing results for practically any situation.

Well, we may as well quit stalling and get down to our slavery, as even from here we can hear dear Julius cracking his whip as he lolls in his editorial ease and twirls his mustaches.

TELL YOU ONE THING. There were an awful lot of dirty dishes left in an awful lot of local sinks this past weekend. Reason for the widespread truancy, the women's handicap tournament at Orinda Country Club.

Happy ladies proudly toting home gold trophies plus nice size Magnin merchandise orders were Ruth Noble, first flight; Jasmine Jensen, second; Eve Adams, third, and Tommy Douglas, fourth. Traveling clicks went to runners up Herm Small, first flight; Katy Tussing, second; Connie Tyson, third, and Phyllis Schaff, fourth.

Bridge table covers went to defeated winners Ellie Sharp, first flight; our fellow newshen Edie Bolman, second; Madlyn Parker, third, and Tournament Chairman Betty O'Kane, fourth.

Now, how about this? Low net was copied by that perfect little lady, Rheba Kilgo — 105-29-76 — which was a ceramic chafing dish, and consolation, a leather cigarette tray and lighter, was won by handicapper Dot Baughman — 86-12-74 — which is also Dot's lowest score. Little Phyllis Schaff (Mrs. Sam) really had her eye on the trophy for handicap cut, having gone from a 35 to a 25 since May.

The lady golfers are eagerly awaiting the yearly "Hustle Bustle" which takes place on October 31, leading off with a breakfast and ending up with 18 of the scariest holes of golf ever experienced, all in Halloween attire. Ryll Elder is M. Cing same this year.

A very interesting group of ladies has been got together under Jean Downs, captain, and Joyce Carter, co-captain, who designate themselves as "The Duffers," some, in fact, completely self-effacing as to style themselves "Duffer Duffers," whose ultimate aim is to establish a handicap and become regular members of the ladies' golfing group.

Those of us who had to go through this soul-harrowing experience playing with already established golfers really appreciate what this means, as we are still carrying deeply-embedded scars on our psyche. Localities observed diligently digging up the turf are Bobbye McGuire, Helen Noble, Marij McDonnell, Ora Traynor, Irene Waddell, Gladys Williams, Gladys Hamberg, Marjorie Lueck, Adele Brodgerski, Isobel Hotaling and Dorene Maddox.

JUST IN CASE THE FOREGOING information might lead you to believe that our gentlemen golfers have been entirely replaced by their fair partners, such is by no means the case. We are still blessed with a goodly representation of male virility which has managed to by-pass the cardiac, ulcer and high pressure areas to be able to negotiate the rugged terrain of Orinda's 18.

In fact, extremely heartening to see popular Johnny Coggins, wearing brace from recent leg operation and saddled with his pre-operative handicap of 11, come through to take the honors in first flight of the recent Director's Cup Tournament. Runner-up was Bob Woodyard. The second flight was won by Jack Elliott, with Dick Normand runner-up. Art Hammond and Ed McGaw third, Ned Fowler and Orton Lucas fourth, Philo Nelson and Louis Trabucco fifth.

Last week President's Cup was won in Class A by southpaw Perry Thomas, followed by Hi Hennings, Dick Norman and Art Somers; Class B was won by Jim Stone, followed by Bill Parrish and George Calkins.

On Sunday the boys and girls got together in a two-ball foursome. Winners of low gross were Sunny Rank and Hi Hennings, with Perry and Dorothy Thomas walking off with low net. Gay group staying on for dinner and dancing, unperturbed by the earthquake which threatened to knock some of the less solid souls off their bar stools, were the Ford Tussings, Art Somers, Bob Johnsons, Joseph Langs, Bob Smiths, Perry Thomas, Rolland Douglas, Don Dotens, Jack Sexsons and Thomas Bacons.

THE OPENING DANCE of the Diablo Cotillion series last Saturday evening a columnist's delight because of the fact that the ladies' gowns, to the very last one, all gasp type.

For example, attendez: Mrs. Jim Shierry's blonde beauty enhanced with white tulle brocade in gold, Mrs. Gorrill Butler's brunette same in paisley, Mrs. Quentin Reynolds in white brocade satin studded with brilliants, Mrs. Paul Marchant in black velvet encrusted with crystal bugle beads, Mrs. Willard Hayes a study in gold from her tresses through her ballerina with heavily quilted flare skirt to her golden toes.

Mrs. Paul Ayer chic and soignée in sophisticated black, as was Mrs. Edmund Cardin (Elvira as her public), Mrs. William Anderson lovely as always in mauve, Mrs. Ramsay Underwood so striking in jade green.

Mrs. Don Lawrie, in flowing white chiffon with brilliant shoulder straps, sitting with Mrs. Tom Ray Jr., so stunning in chartreuse satin and tulle ball gown. Mrs. Chick Reark bespeaking her sly career in hatter top black crepe, Mrs. Harlan Geldermann in white tulle fashioned of pleated gold edged tiers held by snug gold lame waist band. Mrs. Hank Peters, possessor of lovely operatic voice, in emerald satin highlighted with rust panels.

Mrs. George Plans discussing — what do you know? — Community Center — looking lovely in white satin with red roses at her waist. Mrs. James Beatty in fuchsia satin with blending orchid lei, Valletto P.T.A. Prexy Mrs. Dana Hamlin in black net embellished with black velvet polka dots, Mrs. Lee Scott lovely as always in rose tulle. Cute Mrs. Edmund Boero in watermelon satin with orchid lei.

Mrs. John Enright in black taffeta sitting with Mrs. Duncan Knudsen in ditto highlighted by heirloom garnet pin brought back from Denmark. Mrs. John Loop, who could caper for Conover any day, in pale blue chiffon with black lace fishcye and mitts, Mrs. Reynolds Johnson in cocoa lace and tulle.

Mrs. Sam Abbott stunning in black velvet crystal beaded, petite Mrs. George Richardson precious in pink satin, Mrs. William Ornduff's lovely gown fashioned of royal blue taffeta bodice with check skirt.

Entrancing conversation on the intricacies of the newspaper world with Mrs. Murray Johnson (Tali to her friends), who herself was newspaper material in swish brocade blue taffeta.

One bewitching creature, a tall brunette in grey satin and tulle, we were never able to track down, despite a glittering trail she left from her coiffure which was liberally powdered with same and which we suspect was left over from her last year's cub den.

WELL, IT WAS NICE TALKING TO YOU, KIDS. We're off now to a meeting of the Orinda Branch of Children's Hospital to become involved with a flood of fly swatters.

Yes, you heard me. Seems there is a terrific dearth of decorated fly swatters this year to the extent that they are advertised in a decorating magazine with price tag of $8. Well, the little ladies of the Orinda Branch are going to whip up dozens of the necessary items to match your every type of decor, costume or mood — sequins, fringe, beads, buttons or hand painted — there will be an entire boothful at the annual Exhibit Tea to be held at the Claremont Hotel on Wednesday, November 19. Seriously, some of them are out of this world, and for a dollar they make wonderful and unusual Christmas gifts. Come early and take your pick.

Crestview Club Entertains G.I.'s

Crestview Community Club members entertained 23 Camp Stoneman servicemen during last Sunday's "Operation Houseparty."

Swimming in the community pool, games and lunch were enjoyed by all.

Those who entertained the servicemen included Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Lockey, M. Duncan, Earl Creager, Tom Jeffreys, Sewall Smith, Walter Weidlein, Leonard Miles and Earl Gudnason.

One soldier, Robert McDonald, had been a professional entertainer and showed the group some magic tricks which included shaving with a blow torch.

Several transports from Korea landed Sunday, and on board were a number of men who had been "Operation Houseparty" guests a year ago.

They asked if they could go on Sunday's party but because they were being processed, were not allowed to attend.

Plans are being made by members of Boy Scout Troop 204 to entertain at this Sunday's "Operation House-

'Losako' Greeting At WSCS Meeting; Africa Discussed

"Losako" (throw me a proverb) was the greeting heard on all sides when Circle 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met last week at the home of Mrs. Erik Kalin for dessert. Members came early and decorated boxes to be used at the bazaar to be held soon, while plans were laid for the making of other items to be sold at the bazaar.

After dessert and a devotional period led by Mrs. William Takahashi, conversation centered around Africa — its people, their homes, art, culture, religion and problems. Maps, pictures and research material brought by members contributed to the interest of the program.

Those present included the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Alderman, and Mesdames J. M. Burk, John Denman, B. F. Fletcher, J. M. Hatfield, W. H. Margerin, H. D. Mathews, G. A. Miller, William Rosenberg, Chloe Snedden, William Takahashi, Sigrid Webber and Gladys Wood.

Sheila Nielsen, six - year - old daughter of the Mel Nielsens of Ridge Road, will appear as the youngest rider in the 21st annual Mills College Horse Show Sunday. Sheila will ride Star Dust, and will be among more than 100 riders.

Canyon Callings . . .

JOHN BALDWIN, guest of honors, lined up with residents for his share of the good home-cooked food at the potluck supper last Saturday night at the Inn.

The Camp Fire girls served the food, and after the dinner the Cubs made a very efficient "pick-up" committee.

Introduced by Community Club President Mrs. Robert O'Neil, Baldwin gave a short, interesting talk. In the program which followed was a cowboy skit by the Blue Birds, a community sing and color-sound movies. P.S.—The affair was a financial success.

CANYON BOY SCOUT Troop 212 brought home a red ribbon, awarded them at the Meridian District Camporee and swim meet held last weekend at St. Mary's College. The boys were judged on packing, cooking and camping skill.

Bambi Blue Birds, accompanied by leaders Mrs. Ellen Crawford and Mrs. Carlo Scholin attended the annual Blue Bird Frolic last Saturday at San Antonio Park in Oakland. Patsy Crawford, Sue Moore, Doty Shally, Sandra Wells and Judy Kies, with the Oakland groups, took part in games and singing. After lunch and a puppet show they were delivered home by Roy Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. John Calkins III and family are moving-minded new residents who have forsaken the hard pavement of San Lorenzo for an "eagle aerie" near the top of Burpee's Canyon. Daughter Jean is a freshman at Acalanes and son Bill is attending seventh grade at Canyon School.

Finding a black widow spider and scorpion in the house and carrying groceries pick-a-back up the trail have not dampened their enthusiasm for our woody community. They like us!

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Funkhauser, newly moved to the Porter house have entered daughters Joan and Barbara in the primary room at Canyon School. Another tot-age daughter remains at home.

Business discussions of the Canyon Community Club meeting held the evening of October 6 at Canyon School included Halloween plans for the "trick-or-treat" crowd and dinner plans for Work Day at the school on Sunday, October 26.

THE MEMBERS voted money gifts to each of the religious training groups and discussed teen-age entertainment. Among the reports of youth organization leaders came a challenge from the Camp Fire Girls for a game of volleyball with the mothers, scheduled for after the noon meal on "Work Day."

JONATHAN BATCHELOR, Canyon portrait painter and sculptor will have 26 of his paintings on show at the Mezzanine Gallery of the Gray Shop in Oakland from October 13 to November 7. At Third and Broadway, Mr. Batchelor and his wife Sigrid will shortly open a restaurant to be called "The Dining Room." Nautical decorations will include tanks of tropical fish.

In an adjoining studio Mr. Batchelor plans to display paintings of young artists, in order to help them win recognition.

Sea Scouts Study For Bridge Test

Members of the S.S. Seawolf, Lafayette's Sea Scout group sponsored by the Lions Club, met Monday night at Lafayette Covenant Church and studied for their Bridge of Honor test.

This test will be given October 25 at the Harry Ells Junior High School in Richmond.

Sam Mandel, skipper of the group, has submitted his resignation because of ill health. Anyone wishing to serve as skipper has been asked to contact Mandel.

A Mother's Club for the Sea Scout group was organized last month when mothers and fathers met with Mrs. DeAngelis at the Covenant Church. This club now meets on the first Tuesday night of each month, at members' homes.

Because of the November 4 elections, the next meeting will be held November 6 at the home of Mrs. Virginia Ball of 947 Mt. View Drive at 8 p.m.

Mrs. H. D. Bierman of Canyon is chairman of the group, and members are the Mesdames Willa Wadleigh, Baker, Bernie, Alice, Peter, Bert, Anderson, Anna, Tangstedt, Dorothea Rouke and Annette Sweeney. All except Mrs. Bierman and Mrs. Rouke are from Lafayette.

A Thanksgiving dance for the Sea Scouts is now in the planning stage and was discussed during last week's meeting of the Mothers' Club, held at the home of Mrs. Bierman.

a fire prevention talk to all pupils of the Canyon School last Monday. He has asked the children to write a paper on the subject of fire prevention and will award prizes for the best papers when he returns to the school for a second talk on November 3.

In addition to the Noon Leagues champs announced last week, Robert Scarborough is the holder of the "gold" championship cup for marbles. Such a cup will be awarded each month to league winners in jacks, marbles, checkers and horseshoes.

FOUND: A MAMA Muscovy duck and three ducklings. Young Buddy Seeds rescued the lost birds last Sunday and gave them temporary housing with his pet Muscovy, "Oscar." (Oscar, according to the Seeds, has the biggest feet in duckdom—he not only stands, but falls all over his own feet when he waddles.)

Mrs. Seeds does not desire the four wayfarers as steady boarders and is most anxious to find the owner. Kid Quip: 6-year-old Jimmy was very reluctant to start his first day at school. The reason for his reluctance came to light when he wailed: "Last year! Billie had to stay after school whenever he couldn't read his lesson, and I don't know how to read at all!"

The bride, the former Lillian Cooper, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cooper of Canyon.

The groom, a Naval Reservist, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pine and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Meacham, all of Canyon.

The young couple postponed their marriage until the return of Lillian's mother from Martinez Hospital, where she has had a prolonged stay.

During their trip, the newlyweds planned to "drop in" on the Meachams and Mrs. Pine where they are vacationing, and join them in a fishing trip.

The couple are graduates of Acalanes High School. Future plans as to residence will be settled when Pine ends his "hitch" at Naval Air Station in Oakland in May.

The new Mrs. Pine plans to remain on in her position with the American Trust Company in Orinda.

'God or Mad-Man' Topic of Sermon

"Jesus Christ, God or Mad-Man" will be Pastor Luther Berven's sermon topic at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette on Sunday morning.

Commenting on his sermon, Pastor Berven states: "There is no middle position; Jesus Christ is not just a good man nor a great teacher—He is either the Son of God as He Himself claimed to be, or He was a mad-man, making insane claims to divinity. Concerning Jesus, the Christian says today as Peter said of old, 'Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.' For the Christian has experienced that Jesus Christ is truly his Lord and Savior, his Master and Friend, his divine Redeemer and Example."

Identical services are held each Sunday morning at Our Savior's Church at 8:00 and 11 a.m. The Sunday School hour and Family Service is at 9:30 a.m.

The Men of the Church will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. The meeting will be devoted to scouting; Ernest Schneider will speak and show pictures on the responsibilities of the institution that sponsors a scout troop.

Covenant Topic: Missionary Work

Sunday will be Home Missions Emphasis day at Lafayette Covenant Church, which will be asked to contribute an average of at least $4 per member as its quota to the Covenant home missions budget. Last year the church raised a little more than $5 per member.

Rev. Joel S. Peterson will speak at the 11 a.m. service on the theme, "The Open Door of Missionary Opportunity."

AT THE 7 P.M. service the color-sound picture "Fire Upon the Earth" will be shown, depicting dramatic events in the history of the Christian Church from its beginning, through the Reformation and up to the present.

The Women's Bible Study group meets Thursday mornings for an hour at 10:30. The class is open to all interested persons and meets in the homes for the present. Next Thursday's session will be held at the Ed Peterson residence, 3626 Boyer Circle.

THE CONFIRMATION Class meets in the church Friday at 3 o'clock.

Fifteen young people are members of the choir, and new young people are joining. The anthem this Sunday will be "God So Loved the World" by Shelley.

Music at the 11 o'clock service will be sung by the Adult Choir under the direction of Oscar Busch, with Mrs. George Shoptaugh at the organ. The Adult Choir holds its practice on Thursday evening at the church, at 8. The anthem this Sunday will be "Seek Ye the Lord" by Roberts.

Lassie on Screen At Kid's Matinee

"Hills of Home," the movie to be shown, is a tender, homespun story set in the rugged Scottish sheep-raising country. It tells of the struggles of an austere but kindly Scottish doctor and his dog, Lassie.

Doors will open at 1:45. The program includes cartoons and special features.

Work Begins on Catholic Center

First steps in construction work on the new Catholic Center for St. Perpetuas' Parish in Lafayette got under way yesterday.

The Lemos Construction Company started to clear ground away at the church's 10-acre site at the end of Hamlin Road.

When this is completed, construction work on the buildings will start, Pastor Thomas Collins announced.

NEARLY $12,000 has been collected so far during the fund-raising drive. Over half the parishioners have made gifts.

"The drive is still on and the figure is constantly changing," Pastor Collins said.

For the first part of the parish, $150,000 will be needed. Thomas Moran, general chairman of the drive, stated.

Included in this figure is a parish hall, cafeteria and two classrooms. ADDITIONAL PLANS call for an eight-grade school, church and convent.

Vincent G. Raney is architect and Dr. Joseph Vizzard has been serving as co-chairman.

Eighteen acres were first purchased but eight acres have been sold.

Also purchased is the rectory, the old Albert Anacleto home at 818 Solana Drive.

Attractive Mass Transit a 'Must' Declares Breuner

"The only way we will ever solve highway congestion is to make mass public transportation systems so attractive that people will use them, rather than crowd the highways with their private cars."

R. W. Breuner, Orinda representative of The Bay Area Rapid Transit Association, made that statement at the annual meeting of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association at Acalanes High School Tuesday night.

He envisioned a mass rapid transit system embracing the nine counties of the Bay Area. However, he pointed out the tremendous obstacles to be overcome in reconciling the divergence of opinion and different needs in the various communities.

HE DWELT AT SOME length on the practicability of a monorail system, and introduced Thomas I. St. John, monorail expert, who is tentatively scheduled to address the commuters at a future meeting.

Iona Booth, representing the Contra Costa County Development Association, announced that Supervisor H. L. Cummings was unable to attend. She expressed great interest in the problems of commuters and said her group wished to work more closely with the association.

SHE URGED the association, to send representatives to a State Highway Department meeting in Sacramento next Thursday in connection with plans for the Orinda overpass and traffic distribution structures.

Other business consisted of annual committee reports and the nomination and election of seven new directors to serve for two years. Arthur Bowman, retiring president, opened the proceedings with a general summary of the purposes and accomplishments of the past year, and thanked all those who had served so well on his "team," as he put it.

Fred Polliard reported on finances, indicating that the association is in very sound financial condition. Ruth Bell told of the membership drive last spring, interrupted by the Greyhound strike but resulting in well over 500 members having been signed up. The goal next year is for 1000 members, since more than that number regularly commute by bus to and from either Oakland or San Francisco and this county, not to mention the large group traveling by private ride pools, who are also eligible for membership.

John E. McKirahan reported on efforts of the service committee to secure more buses to take care of the ever-increasing load. He quoted the position of F. W. Ackerman, Greyhound president, during the course of the 1950 rate hearings, at which time Ackerman said that he would not put on more buses to attract commuter business — that he wasn't interested in it — that it was a losing proposition.

"AS A RESULT," said McKirahan, we have a constantly-changing pattern which keeps loading up the highways. A hundred new commuters who have recently moved into the area take to riding buses to and from their jobs. One hundred other old-time commuters, already disgusted with overloading and stand-

Quake Rocks All Of Contra Costa

The strongest earthquake in this area in recent years shook Contra Costa County at 4:45 p.m. last Sunday.

The quake lasted for four minutes but no damage was reported in this area. Dishes rattled in Orinda and Lafayette homes, but many persons outdoors in those communities did not feel the quake.

Although the tremor centered along the Hayward Fault in the Diamond district of Oakland, it was felt from San Mateo County to Marin County.

MANY PEOPLE jumped to their feet in the Orinda Theater when the quake started, but Manager Ben Randall warned all not to panic.

In Lafayette's Park Theater, the chandelier was noticed to sway and a "rattle" was heard.

Two persons walking in Canyon felt the ground shake and as they looked about, they saw homes and trees starting to sway.

TWO YOUNGSTERS who were sitting on the ground in Canyon said, "the ground bumped us up and down."

Both the Lafayette and the Orinda Fire Departments reported the quake "shook pretty hard but no damage occurred."

John Farr, University of California seismologist, gave the quake a magnitude of 3.5 on the Richter scale.

The recent Tehachapi tremor was 7.5, the Bakersfield quake was 6.0, and the 1906 San Francisco disaster was 8.25.

This was the second quake in the Hayward Fault in the last 15 months.

Sloane and Del Armstrong of Walnut Creek.

Charles Wood of Orinda was awarded the commute book which was given during the evening.

To Conduct New Hearings on Planners' Setup

Third public hearing on proposed reorganization of the County Planning Commission was held by the planners Wednesday — but there'll be more hearings.

The proposal to set up a three-member committee to handle land use applications, thus giving the commission and its technical staff more time for long-range planning, came in for only 15 minutes' discussion late in the afternoon, due to the lengthy conference on lot-sizes earlier.

Attorney Gordon Turner of the law firm of Tinning and DeLap asked that the matter be continued so that the commission and the district attorney's office could work out a proposed ordinance and so that a new series of hearings could be held, with all interested persons in receipt of copies of the proposed ordinance.

This idea was agreed to by the commission and Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker. The hearings which had been held were declared concluded. When an ordinance is proposed new hearings will be scheduled.

The plan which had been under consideration involved no ordinance proposal — it was a suggestion for streamlining Planning Commission action. Under the new course, an actual proposed ordinance will be presented and public hearings on it will be conducted.

SUN Circulation Director Injured In Auto Accident

Oma Perry of 1330 Lincoln Avenue, Walnut Creek, was recovering yesterday from injuries received when she was struck by a car Wednesday at Main Street and Ygnacio Boulevard.

Officials at Permanente Hospital in Oakland said she suffered a shoulder dislocation which was scheduled for manipulation later yesterday. Her release depended on its success.

Miss Perry was struck by a Jeep driven by Alex Quinto of Concord at 5:20 p.m. Police Officer Dick Quen reported she was in the crosswalk with the green light in her favor.

Quintos was cited for failure to yield to a pedestrian in a crosswalk.

Miss Perry is circulation director of the SUN's current Subscription Contest.

Resumption of the contest will depend on Miss Perry's release from the hospital and her condition, a SUN spokesman said.

Further information about the Acalanes Evening Program for adults may be secured by telephoning the high school, Walnut Creek 6707, Monday through Thursday evenings, 7 to 10.

Nominations are coming in, votes are starting to pile up, and the Circulation Club Contest of the Walnut Creek Sun, the Lafayette Sun and the Orinda Sun is now under way!

With a 1952 Chevrolet sedan as first prize, an all-expense tour to Hawaii as second prize and three cash awards of $100 each, the contest bids fair to attract many participants. Those prizes head the $3000 in prizes and cash commissions. Everybody wins in this contest—entrants who do not win an award will be paid 10 per cent of all subscriptions turned in by them.

Although, naturally, the main aim of the contest is to increase the circulation of THE SUN, this isn't an ordinary circulation drive. Far from it.

THE CLUB MEMBERS who obtain the greatest number of votes will be the winners. There are votes for subscriptions turned in, votes for nomination of new members, votes based on popularity of members. . . . And the votes range in number from 500 to 750,000 at a time.

Sound complicated? It really isn't. Just see the big ad in this issue for full details.

NAMES OF THOSE nominated as members of the Circulation Club will be published in next week's paper. Join today—and get in line for that array of prizes!

The Circulation Club director, who will be glad to answer questions that may arise, is at The SUN offices all day Tuesday and from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. and 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. other days, and can also be seen by appointment.

Acalanes students will stay at home Monday, October 27, while their teachers observe their third day of Teachers' Institute training by visiting other high schools and observing and discussing teaching methods used successfully by instructors elsewhere.

Await O. K. of Rick's Withdrawal Of Liquor Request

Word from the State Board of Equalization in Sacramento on official approval of withdrawal of the application for an on-sale general liquor license for Rick's Drive-In was still awaited yesterday.

Asked if the $325 deposit by the applicants, minus the processing costs, had been returned, the office of George Gordon, one of the attorneys for the applicants, stated that "nothing has come through our office as yet."

Last week, Gordon and Attorney Richard Johnston notified the board that the application was being withdrawn.

THIS WITHDRAWAL is conditioned upon the return of the application fee heretofore deposited with the State Board of Equalization in the amount of $325, less the processing costs," the letter stated.

Withdrawal will become official when the deposit is returned.

Mrs. Fred Knobel, a leader in the fight against the application, received a letter from James H. Quinn, District 2 board member, stating that he had received Gordon's and Johnston's letter.

Meanwhile, plans for a meeting of interested persons on October 26, 3 p.m., at Acalanes High School, were still being held in readiness.

THIS GATHERING was planned as a preparatory measure for the previously scheduled October 30 hearing in Sacramento. This hearing, as required by law, was set following the board's voting several weeks ago, to deny the application, despite the recommendation by the August 26 Martinez hearing officer that the license be issued.

POLIO HIT BOB WHITAKER — but Bob, with the help of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, hit back. Today he's a bookkeeper at the Bank of America in Walnut Creek. This is one example of what the Therapy Center does for the physically handicapped people of this area. To continue such activity, the Center asks your financial support. Send your contribution to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Box 594, Walnut Creek.

Therapy Center Made It Possible For Bob Whitaker to Work at Job

Many years back polio hit this community hard and scattered many crippled children and adults in its wake. One unfortunate victim of this scourge was a young man entering the prime of life.

This young man, Bob Whitaker of Lafayette, just out of service and slowly getting back to the routine of civilian life, suddenly found himself flat on his back in the hospital, unable to move. After many long, anxious months in a wheelchair, Bob was discharged in a wheelchair, never to walk again.

He went home with little hope and even fewer prospects of ever being able to work and live normally. Several years went by, and Bob had become one of society's disinherited.

FOR MANY this is where the story ends, but not for Bob. Today he is working hard at his job as bookkeeper at the Bank of America in Walnut Creek. Bob has displayed the courage and fortitude few possess — he has overcome a handicap considered insurmountable by even the most optimistic.

There may not have been such a wonderful ending to this story had there not been the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center to provide treatment, training and understanding for Bob. FIRST, THE CENTER was able to build Bob's physical condition up to the point where he could work eight hours a day. The Center was further able to train Bob in the fundamentals of machine bookkeeping. A bookkeeping machine was rented and an actual working condition was set up at the Center. Bob came every morning, worked and trained for eight hours each day and prepared himself for the day when he would actually begin work.

Placement in the Bank of America was facilitated by understanding and helpful people. They knew Bob's limitations, but they also knew that given a chance Bob would make good. They knew he was capable of doing a job and doing it well.

TO CONTINUE to provide service to the handicapped people of our area, the Therapy Center must ask the community to contribute to its support. Surely what has been done for Bob can be done for others if the Therapy Center receives your contribution. No matter how little you can send, it will be appreciated. Send your contribution to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Box 594, Walnut Creek.

Christian Science Topic — 'Doctrine Of Atonement'

On Sunday the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches will have for its subject "Doctrine of Atonement."

The sermon will be comprised of citations from the Bible and correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

The following passages will be among those used: The Bible: "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (II Corinthians 5:17).

Science and Health: "He to whom 'the arm of the Lord' is revealed will believe our report, and rise into newness of life with regeneration. This is having part in the atonement; this is the understanding, in which Jesus suffered and triumphed" (p. 24).

Lack of Funds Stymie Work of Safety Council

A member of the Contra Costa Safety Council this week reported his group's effectiveness is handicapped by lack of finances.

G. W. Whitney, chairman of the council's reviewing committee, said members bear their own expenses while assisting and making recommendations to the county in the way of planning.

AS AN EXAMPLE, Whitney cited the studies his group undertakes on proposed subdivisions.

In an effort to study proposed subdivisions from the standpoint of safety, Whitney said, plans are submitted to the council by the Planning Commission before action is taken.

These are surveyed, he said, for fire and flood protection, schools, streets, traffic, and all with an eye for the safety factor. They then are referred back to the planners with recommendations for either approval or changes.

The work entailed, including the expenses for travel, Whitney said is borne by members of the council.

"ONE SUNDAY I covered about 150 miles looking over a planned subdivision in the interest of safety," Whitney said. "Of course we do get a pat on the back for our work."

Others on the reviewing committee with Whitney include Claude Smith and Bill McIntosh of Walnut Creek, Keith Smith of Gregory Gardens and Pasquali Marcelli of Pittsburg.

Whitney said the council's approach to safety is like that of industry. "We try to recognize existing hazards," he said, "and do something about them before injury or death occurs."

He said by insurance standards and tabulations, a death costs about $67,000.

However, the State Highway Commission, he continued, objects to spending $40,000 for a stop light at an intersection.

"They fail to see," he said, "that if that light saved the life of one person, their expense would be paid off and then some."

New Voters Should Support BALDWIN For U. S. CONGRESS

because....

John Baldwin is a "grass roots" candidate... chosen by Contra Costa and Solano citizens... not by political cliques or opportunists. He is able, vigorous and sincere with broad experience... where it counts... in Washington.

because....

47,457 Democrats and Republicans rightfully gave him the high popular primary vote among six candidates... testimony of the people's desire for unfettered, unbossed, undominated representation. John Baldwin has no strikes against him. A native of Contra Costa, his entire life stands scrutiny.

because....

John Baldwin has never been a party pack horse. But, he is a work horse. He draws no distinctions between individuals... he is an indefatigable worker and will labor for all people... whether Republican or Democrat... whether from Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma or Maine.

because....

John Baldwin's best recommendations come from his neighbors. He swept his home precinct in Martinez, where both he and his opponent practice law, 105 to 41. He swept his opponent's home precinct 144 to 98. In the Walnut Creek area, in which his opponent resides and the region of the Baldwin farm, John Baldwin was given more than a 2 to 1 majority.

because....

Whether Democrat or Republican you can start the new Sixth Congressional District RIGHT. Your votes can put in Congress a man Democrats and Republicans support. Your votes can give the new Sixth District a representative of whom it can be proud.

Next Week - Indians, Papooses, JV Cougars

The Acalanes Varsity football gridders confine their playing to practice today, due to the fact that they drew a bye in league play. However, they hit the home stretch, meeting the John Swett Indians in a crucial game next Friday under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field at 8 o'clock.

THE GAME is rated a tossup, in view of the visitors' impressive record to date. They were undefeated in practice tilts and took the measure of Antioch with ease in their initial league encounter, only to have all of the breaks go against them in their game with Mt. Diablo High, which they dropped 20-0, with the Diablo eleven scoring twice late in the game on bad passes from center.

Big and rough, the Crockett team will go a long way toward determining just where the Dons will end up this season.

THE DON J.V. club will travel to Crockett on Thursday, and is rated as favorite over the Papooses, who haven't shown much to date.

Zippering speed in the backfield could mean another win for the Don Babes.

Kickoff time for the Don Babes-Papooses game is set for 3:30 p.m.

LAS LOMAS HIGH improves with each outing, and its next league game is next Thursday, when the Knights travel to Albany to meet the J.V. Cougars at 3:30 p.m.

Albany has the edge in experience but the Knights should give a good account of themselves, with an upset win a definite possibility.

Acalanes Sure Has Grown—and New Don Locker, Drying Room Now in Full Use

By ERWIN MATTON

THE ACALANES DONS are the proud possessors of a new locker and drying room as a part of their athletic and physical education facilities, along with some much-needed storage space.

The new wing to the locker room has been completed, and as of now all facilities are being put to full use.

The new storage space cares for athletic equipment and towels. Towels in themselves take quite a space when it is realized that more than 600 are used by the boys each day.

Two to three days' supply is kept on hand, and those plus the used ones mean 2000 to 3000 towels have to be cared for.

The former facilities were OK when the student body was much smaller, but space has become a major item with enrollment jumping from under 400 to over 1000 students in the past 12 years.

A new storage room provides a much-needed place for the keeping of athletic and gym equipment.

A DRY ROOM, complete with special heavy special metal hangers and a fan that circulates hot air, enables the football boys to have dry equipment each day.

The drying not only makes the equipment comfortable to wear, but results in the gear lasting much longer. Hangers are numbered and will hold a complete football suit, which weighs some 12 to 15 pounds.

Workouts in warm weather result in a player losing five pounds or more, and the gear looks as if it had been soaked in water. Thanks to the new dry room, gear is dry and available for use in a matter of a few hours.

The new locker room has 124 five-foot lockers, which means that every player has adequate room to store his gear and hang his clothes.

All in all, the new addition is a most welcome one and is being put to full use each day. The facilities will be used by the boys in each sport as the seasons change, with basketball next in line.

Don JV Gridders Smash Albany Cougars 19 to 0

The Acalanes Junior Varsity eleven came through with a 19-0 win over a green Albany team October 9, to stay out in front with two wins in league play.

The score indicates a one-sided win, but such was not the case, particularly in the fourth quarter, when Albany did some rambling of their own, only to bog down whenever they neared the goal line.

"RED" RICHARD JONES scored in the opening period when he skirted end for seven yards, and he added the conversion point with a place-kick that sailed square between the uprights.

In the same period Dick Jarrett rambled through a broken field for 20 yards, making it 13-0, and that's the way it stayed when Jones had his conversion try blocked.

THE FINAL TD came when Keith Lesure smashed over from two yards out, and that ended the scoring, as the conversion try was blocked.

A standout was Jim Larsen, an end who grabbed seven passes which were good for lots of yardage.

JONES was outstanding with his passing and ball handling. The line and backs in general were not sharp.

Vikings Meet Napa Following Win Over Marin

East Contra Costa J.C.'s hard-hitting grid Vikings seek their fifth straight victory tomorrow night when they entertain the Napa J.C. Chiefs at Concord.

Paced by the running of ex-Pittsburg High star L. C. Joyner, Quarterback Tommy Kramer of Mt. Diablo and two ex-Acalanes High linemen, Jim Forni and George Kallas, the Vikings smashed College Marin 47-7 last Friday night at Kentfield to launch Coast Conference competition.

IT WAS THE ALBERT KALLAS who pounced on two Marin fumbles that led directly to C.C. touchdowns. Kallas and Forni, regulars on Coach Hal Butta's defensive unit, spearheaded a line that kept the Tars bottled up throughout the lop-sided contest. Contra Costa ran up a decisive 2-0 halftime bulge.

Another ex-Don, Bob Borghesani, moved highly valuable as a defensive safety man and an offensive end, keeping the Marin defense baffled with his pass receiving as Joyner and a fleet of Vikings gridders proceeded to pile up yardage.

HALFBACK John Daniels, also a former Acalanes High star, was one of the bright reserves with his running. Daniels, a converted end, showed flashes of brilliance as a ball carrier and even registered a touchdown in the second period.

Adult Workshop Class Announced

.900-Predictor, Prof Again Does Crystal-Gazing

By PROF. PEERLESS

The old professor did some tall crystal-gazing last week and but for one miscue would have batted 1.000 instead of .900.

The only miss was on the Illinois-Washington game, where yours truly, went away out on the limb and picked Washington. As things turned out, they weren't even in the ball game.

.900 is good picking in anybody's league, so let's see what the old crystal ball says this week.

IN THE LOCAL high school league, Pittsburg meets John Swett, and while many tab John Swett as a dark horse, it still looks to be a Pittsburg Pirate win, and by a 27-7 score. Pitt is rolling again, and don't bet too much they won't end the number 1 team for the fifth consecutive time.

Diablo, a pre-season favorite, cops another win at Antioch, but not as easy as expected. Look for Antioch to come close to upsetting the dope bucket here. Diablo, 13; Antioch, 7. Alhambra tries its luck with Albany, and while it rates a tossup on paper, it's Alhambra in the win column, 13-12.

IN THE PACIFIC Coast Conference, the upset of the week is U.C.L.A. over Stanford—or is that wishful thinking by loyal rooters? See Seth Blakeman for details on this one.

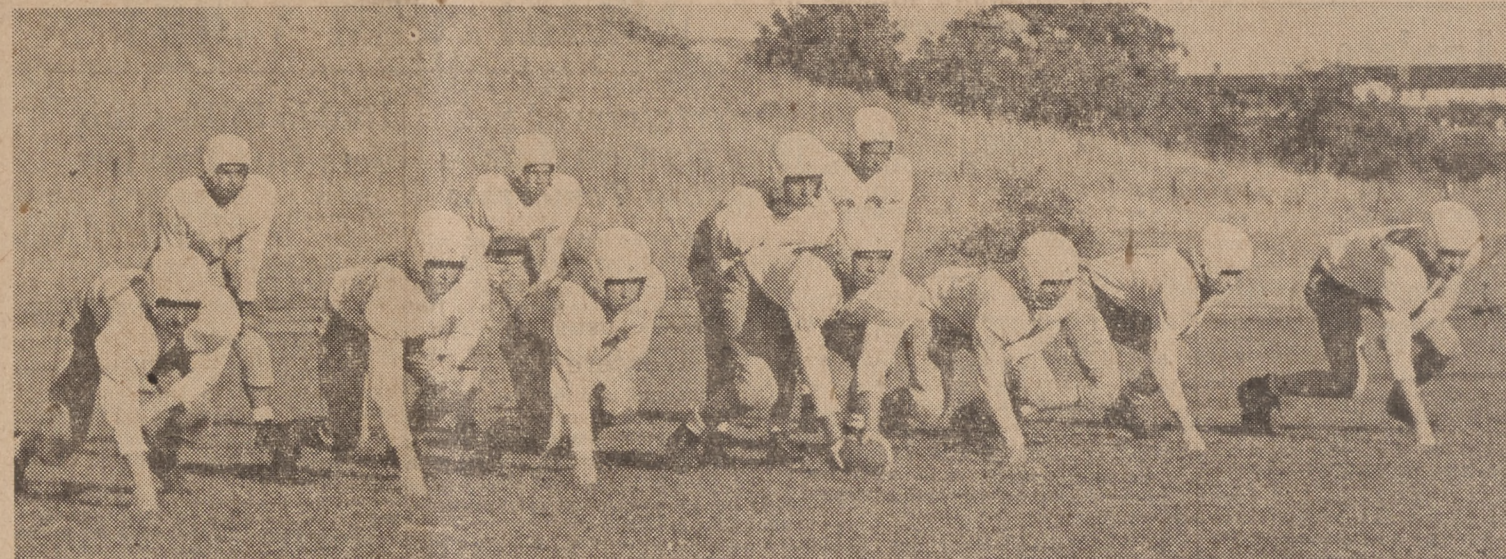

Much depends on the U.C.L.A. tailback, Cameron, who can turn the tide if he is ready.

U.C.L.A. 20; Stanford, 7. CAL AT BERKELEY roars again as it swamps a willing but not so able Santa Clara. The Bears get rolling early in this one, and all hands see action. Bears, 37; Santa Clara, 7.

Southern Cal not as strong as indicated, particularly on offense, but still too much for Oregon State. Oregon State's best chance is rain, but on a dry field it's U.S.C., 21; O.S.C., 0.

IDAHO WINS, with North Dakota State the victim, 27-6. Washington bounces back on the arm of Heinrich, to win over Oregon, 13-7, while Washington State tries hard but falls short when it meets up with Ohio State—the score: 27-7, in favor of the Midwest eleven.

SAN JOSE pulls a surprise and upsets highly rated C.O.P. 20-19 in one of the better games of the week from the spectator viewpoint. Cal Poly downs much-advertised San Francisco State, 19-13, while Marquette defeats Arizona, despite

WATCH OUT IN '54! That's the cry of this rugged-looking Las Lomas High School football team. This is the first year of organized play for the new school and the entire squad is made up of freshmen and sophomores. By 1954, Coach Merrill Callow should have quite an aggregation. In fact, they look pretty tough right now. Shown in the

Knights Tounce Bullpups, 19-14

The Las Lomas Knights made their second outing in league play a successful one when they toppled the Alhambra Bullpups 19-14 on October 9, at Martinez.

The Bullpups jumped to an early lead when the Knights elected to try for a first down instead of punting on a fourth down from their own 35 early in the first quarter.

The try for yardage failed, and Alhambra's eleven wasted little time in punching the ball over the goal line and tossing an aerial for the conversion point to make it 7-0, with the Knights on the short end.

THE BULLPUPS lead was not long to be enjoyed by Alhambra, however, as early in the second period Halfback Rick Ostrom put Las Lomas back in the game when he tossed an 18-yard pass to End Dick Gordon, which made it 7-6 when the conversion kick was blocked.

Midway in the same quarter, Ostrom put the Knights out in front 12-6, when he gathered an Alhambra punt into his arms and scrambled 50 yards to cross the end stripe, standing up.

Once again the conversion place-kick was blocked, and the score stood 12-7 at the halfway mark.

The Martinez eleven came back all hopped up in the third quarter and went 60 yards on a line plunging drive that ended in a T.D., converted and went out in front, 14-12.

THE KNIGHTS were not to be denied, however, and ironman Ostrom threw a strike to End Ed Munster just over the goal line stripe, with four minutes to go in the game, that put the Walnut Creek eleven out in front 18-14, and it was 19-14 when Ostrom dove over tackle for the extra point.

Pittsburg's favorite son, John Henry Johnson, Marquette, 13; Arizona, 7.

That's it for this week—read 'em and weep!

Sharon Murray Kickoff Winner

Because she correctly picked 11 out of 14 listed football games, Sharon Murray of 171 Circle Drive, Walnut Creek, won last week's Kickoff Contest sponsored by the Lafayette Sun. Walnut Creek Sun and Orinda Sun.

As her prize, Sharon will receive the Walnut Creek Sun for one year.

A contest is not being held this week but will be resumed next week.

Bill Pedder, David Stewart and Bob Kesselring, all of Lafayette, correctly picked nine winners and tied for second-spot honors.

Susan Morse of Orinda, Ed Givins and W. B. Scarborough and Ray Thornburg of Antioch each picked eight winners and tied for third place.

Fast-Playing Don Grid Team Defeats Albany High's Cougars—Score, 20-6

The Acalanes Dons played some brilliant ball in spots to defeat the Albany High Cougars 20 to 6 in a league game at Acalanes Memorial Field last Friday night.

The Dons gave evidence of winning ways when they ran to a T.D. the first time they managed to get their hands on the ball.

Albany won the toss and elected to receive. On the first running play they fumbled, with the Dons recovering on the Albany 47.

Don Quarterback Bart Ferro sent Ray Williamson into the line on a fake and tossed the pigskin to Halfback Jim Burns, who raced down the sidelines to score standing up. The try for point was wide and it was 6-0, with a minute gone in the game.

THE DONS WERE not long in scoring again, with hard-running Roger Owen going over from two yards out, and it was 13-0 when Sammy Indelicato tossed a pass to Mike White on the conversion try. Albany got into the act when, early in the second quarter, Halfback Wayne Long took the kickoff and raced 32 yards to score standing up.

The ball game other than Long's run was the Dons' all the way, with penalties at crucial moments preventing further scoring until midway in the final period. It was then that Ferro tallied on a sneak play from two yards out and Indelicato place-kicked to make it 20-6.

ROGER OWEN proved to be a

Acalanes Downs Las Lomas 14-6

By winning a smashing 14-6 victory over the Las Lomas Knights before a crowd of 500 excited football fans yesterday at Las Lomas field, the Acalanes Junior Varsity has remained in the ranks of the undefeated.

It was the Knights who drew first blood in the opening quarter when Rick Ostrom smashed into the end zone in a line plunge from the four-yard line.

A Las Lomas fumble in the second period opened the way for the Don Babes' first touchdown. Acalanes recovered the fumble and on the next play scored on a 28-yard end run.

They converted and at half-time left the field with a 7-6 edge.

Both squads battled to a standstill in the third quarter. Midway in the final period, Acalanes chalked up their final touchdown on a long end run.

After a 20-20 tie with Livermore in their opener, the Don Babes went on to trounce Alhambra 38-0 and Albany 19-0.

The Knights on the other hand, dropped their opening league game 21-0 to the powerful Pittsburg Pirates J. V. eleven after having played a scoreless tie with San Ramon in their only practice game.

Last week the Knights pulled an upset when they displayed an offense as well as flashes of defense to topple the Alhambra Bullpups 19-14.

Merrill Callow is the Las Lomas coach while Gene Ridley and Bob Stevens are coaching the Don Babes.

hard-running back, as did Jim Burns.

Don Davis did a good job in the fullback spot, filling in for Williamson, who received a bump early in the first quarter.

Fred Ravazza, Jim Small, George Fortado, Bill Johnson and Jerry Henderson were standouts on defense.

Spotlighting the Strip . . .

By KITTY COLE

"Rumors are flying," along the strip, and again one of our popular clubs is said to be folding for lack of business. Almost every week I hear that this club or that restaurant is closing its doors, and whether this is mere wishful thinking on the part of competitors, or just idle gossip, it has no basis in fact and serves no good purpose. The latest spot to get this type of publicity is DANNY VAN ALLEN'S. DANNY, who was given three months to survive when he first opened, has surprised many. (You're truly excited) by celebrating his first year anniversary on last Tuesday, October 14th, and business has never been better.

Want to remodel your restaurant? Or are you interested in building a night club or motel? If so, DESIGN ASSOCIATES of Oakland, is the firm to see. Staffed by "young men with ideas" they will design, build, or even equip and furnish to your specification. And as their advertisement so aptly states — There are "no cloud artists on our decor staff." JIMMY DIAMOND, currently the Sunday-night maestro at the ORINDA WILLOWS played on the Sun-Best Television program for two years and can be seen on the "Funtest" program at 9:15 Monday nights on channel 7. . . My nomination for one of the most gracious hosts in this area, goes to MR. FAUST of the restaurant by the same name. Go in for luncheon or dinner, some time soon, and meet this most charming man. . . LUST!

ANTS has made quite a hit with their family dinners and specially-priced cocktails which are served from 5 to 7:30, Tuesday thru Saturday and on Sunday from 3 to 7:30. Dancing starts at 9, to the music of the DICK LANE QUARTET, and this compact little group is most entertaining. DANNY VAN ALLEN'S anniversary party brought out many celebrities as well as friends, who were all on hand to wish DANNY many more successful years at this popular spot. May I add my felicitations to all the rest?

"Whatever You Do - Vote YES on 2"

OUR SCHOOLS ARE IN TROUBLE! Because of the inflation, soaring birth rate, and huge out-of-State population increase since the end of the War, most school districts in California today just don't have enough money to make ends meet!

PROPOSITION 2 IS THE ANSWER. Proposition 2 gives school children and taxpayers both a break by increasing the State's share of school support—thus keeping our schools open without increasing the tax burden on homeowners.

WE ALL WANT BETTER SCHOOLS. We may differ deeply on election day over candidates and other ballot issues, but we all agree our children's educational needs must be met. That's why Democrats and Republicans, labor, business and farmers, all say: Whatever you do—

Does Your Lawn Need Repairing?

So your lawn needs repairing? Don't feel bad—even the best cared-for lawns do at times. When this time comes, be systematic. Determine first why your lawn needs repairing. If there is something fundamentally wrong, correct it before going any farther. For example: if your troubles stem from poor drainage, improper grading or some other cause of this kind, correct it before reseeding. If you don't your seeding will fail as surely as the first did.
THE TIME depends upon your inclination. You'll get better results usually from Fall plantings, but repairs can be very successfully made in early Spring, and even Summer with proper care.
Do your work in the Fall if you can. Then there is less competition from weed seeds—most of which have sprouted in the Spring or early Summer. Ordinarily there will be abundant Fall rains to hasten germination. Then, too, the cooler nights and morning dews are just what grasses love.

Lawn-Mowing - Here's Advice on How To Do It...

Wait until your new lawn is about three inches high before mowing the first time. Get your mower sharpened, set it to cut at a height of two inches, and let the clippings remain where they fall.
This allows the seedlings to develop good strong roots and lessens evaporation from the soil.
LATER YOU MAY wish to clip closer than two inches. But first, consider these things:
Close clipping hinders food-making functions, weakens root growth and impairs health and competitiveness of the grasses. It also encourages many weeds and causes a need for more frequent waterings because of exposure of the soil to the sun.
THERE ARE A FEW exceptions—among them: Bentgrasses thrive on close cutting, and close clipping may be necessary to combat well-established crabgrass. In almost every other case, though, authorities agree lawns are best when cut at about one and a half inches.
After your lawn is established, do as you like about lawn clippings. Most people think it's best to "leave-em-lay." This provides a mulch which cuts down evaporation losses. It also lessens the drain on soil fertility. If the grass is too tall when mowed, the clippings may be unsightly, however.

Everyone knows that there are too many cars on the highways at peak hours. Whenever possible choose the off-hours when traffic is lightest to do your driving.

Your Garden Autumn Is Nature's - Also Your - Time To Assure Successful, Luxuriant Lawn

By BERT WRIGHT
In October, when the days become shorter, the nights cooler, it's nature's and the successful gardeners' lawn making time. Fall weather is ideal for quick germination and sturdy development of grass. Late summer and early fall made lawns will have a luxuriant top growth and deep sturdy root growth by the time winter comes.

Maybe you have just moved into a new home and must make a new lawn; or you have an established lawn, but one that has gone through a hard, hot summer... no matter what your lawn problem, fall is the best season to take care of it.
If you feel it is best to make a new lawn, rather than to try to condition it, follow these simple steps:
1. SPADE DEEPLY. Lawn making starts with the preparation of the soil. Spade to a depth of at least six inches and pulverize thoroughly.
2. APPLY COMPLETE plant food. Use four pounds per 100 square feet of area. This assures an ample supply of all the nutrients needed by grass for best growth and development. Be sure to apply it evenly, using a spreader, if available.
3. WORK PLANT FOOD into the soil. Use a rake or any other appropriate tool and work the plant food into the top three to four inches of the soil. Wait a few days before seeding.
4. SEED WITH GOOD grass seed. Get the heaviest and cleanest seed obtainable, use at the rate of six to seven pounds per 1,000 square feet. If you sow by hand, sow half lengthwise and half crosswise.
5. ROLL THE LAWN. This will embed the seed and assure close seed-soil contact. A tamper or wide board can be used on small areas when a roller is not available. This is an important step; do not omit it.
6. WATER OFTEN. Use a fine spray that will not disturb or move the seed. Water each day for three to four weeks. This will speed germination of the seed. After the grass is up the daily sprinkling can be stopped.

Follow these steps and the grass will develop a strong root system before winter comes... this kind of a root system means a thick, green turf next summer.
IF YOU DECIDE it is best to keep the established sod that you have and rework the bare and thin spots, eradication of weed growth will probably be the first job. This is easily done with a selective lawn weed killer.

Merely spray the entire area, using the side sprayer or other spray equipment. When the weeds begin to die, apply complete plant food at the rate of four pounds per 100 square feet over the entire area. Be sure to knock the plant food off the grass blades with the back of a rake. Soak the lawn thoroughly.
THREE OR FOUR DAYS later, loosen the soil on thin or bare spots. Reseed these areas with a good grass seed.
Roll or tamp the newly-seeded areas. Daily sprinkling of water will hasten germination and help you to secure a good stand of grass.

100 YEARS EXPERIENCE Harnessing the water power of the Sierra

1852 — Water was first put to work in Sierra gold mines served by South Yuba Water Co., a P. G. and E. parent.

1889 — Water power became electric power in this early Electra plant. Former hydraulic miners helped build it.

1949 — Getting the most out of water power, this compact new Electra has five times the capacity of the old plant.

All through the Sierra country you'll see P. G. and E. hydro-electric plants taming mountain water to bring power to you. Here, as elsewhere on our system, careful management and constantly improved efficiency have helped reduce electric rates far below the U. S. average. Today you pay $2.50, on the average, for electricity that would have cost $20 in 1889. This century of P. G. and E. experience has made good electric and gas service truly cheap throughout Northern and Central California. 10-17-1c

Know What You Will Vote For?

Election Day, November 4, is only two and a half weeks off. It is, of course, very important that you vote. You've heard "Vote as you please, but vote!" — and we're sure you agree.

But it's your duty not only to vote, but also to know whom and what you're voting for. No doubt you've studied the candidates and have pretty well made up your mind as to which candidates you'll support.

But what about the 24 state propositions on the ballot? And what about County Proposition A? Do you know the score on these?

After every county, state or national election, there's a loud wailing — "Why weren't we told about those propositions, about that bond issue?"

The question, rather, should be: Why didn't you know about those issues?

There's plenty of opportunity to learn of these matters. At present, for instance, meetings are being held throughout the area, where the propositions are discussed. All registered voters are receiving the official booklet from the state listing and describing the state propositions. The county has explained its Proposition A — the $1,350,000 bond issue for a county office building in Richmond.

Newspapers, radio and television carry lots of news about the campaigns and the propositions. And at the Sun-sponsored political rally at Acalanes October 28, you'll have the opportunity to see and hear our Assembly and Congressional candidates in action, seriously debating the issues in their campaigns.

There's no excuse for being uninformed. It's up to YOU!

Teachers To Hear Dr. R. B. Kennan

Dr. Richard B. Kennan, executive secretary for the National Education Association Commission for the Defense of Democracy through Education, will speak Thursday, October 30, 8 p. m., in the Las Lomas High gym on "Meeting Attacks on Public Education."

Dr. Kennan's appearance is being sponsored by the Acalanes Teachers' Association, the Acalanes district teachers' organization.

Purposes of the NEA Commission headed by Dr. Kennan have been stated to be:

1. To give the public more understanding of the importance of education for all of our people.
2. To defend the cause of education against unjust attacks.
3. To work for the educational conditions essential for the perpetuation of our democracy.

Dr. Kennan's Las Lomas appearance will be his only one in Contra Costa County. The public is invited.

Contractors Hear Local Problems

The General Contractors Association of the county met Tuesday.

Robert R. Platt, president, said among matters discussed were sewage disposal and water pollution, flood control and drainage, and lot size and zoning methods.

A film produced by the National Association of Home Builders entitled "Public Relations for Home Builders" was shown at the meeting.

Divident checks for the group compensation insurance policy of the association, which has returned an average of over 45 per cent for the 13 years it has been in existence, were distributed.

While working—on the job or around home—telephone men find these glasses virtually eliminate eye injuries

SAFE SIGHT

Their vision may be perfect, but most telephone men wear glasses now—special safety glasses that look like ordinary ones

Next time you see a group of telephone men at work, take a second look. Chances are you'll notice they're wearing glasses, perhaps in several different styles. A coincidence? No—for most telephone men now wear individually-fitted safety glasses, and experience has shown that they drastically reduce the danger of eye injuries. That's because they're rimmed, specially treated glasses that won't shatter or break under severe impact. In the last 2 years, they've been issued to some 20,000 Pacific Telephone men as a key part of our Eye Protection Program. And this program is actually only one part of the company-wide safety campaign that has made telephone jobs among the safest in the nation.

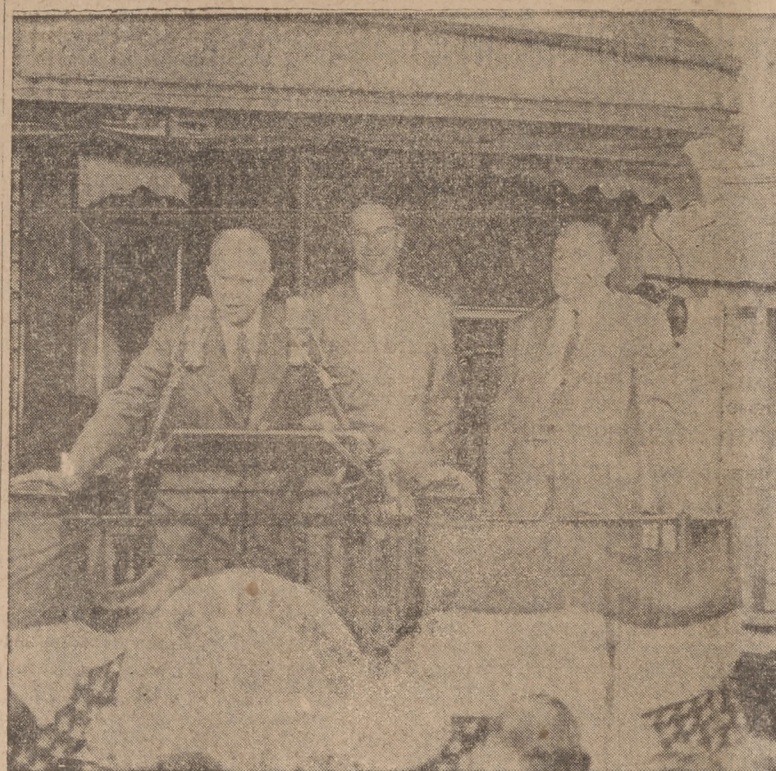

Perhaps the best way to illustrate how low telephone rates are today is to compare our prices with those of other things you use every day—food, for instance. If the price of coffee, for example, had gone up no more, since 1940, than average telephone rates in Pacific Telephone's territory, you'd be able to buy coffee today for about 29 cents a pound.

Far above the ground, this cable-splicer is completing an aerial splice. Looks hazardous, doesn't it? But the fact is, he's a lot safer than the average pedestrian crossing a busy street. The "messenger strand" from which his work platform is suspended will support a weight far in excess of the safety requirements. His glasses, safety belt, gloves, tools and methods of working are all carefully designed to guard his safety. And, of course — like telephone people everywhere — he observes the familiar Bell System creed: No job is so important and no service is so urgent that we cannot take time to perform our work safely. We think it's a good creed—especially important to us, to you and to the nation in these critical times.

Observe Succoth, Condon on Tour Jewish Holiday Here with Adlai

The Jewish holiday, Succoth, was observed Sunday by the children of the Jewish Sunday School of Central Contra Costa County, at Lafayette Town Hall.

The holiday is a harvest festival. The children celebrated by decorating a "Succa," which is the frame of a small room decorated with the fall fruits and foliage. They also participated in folk dances.

Mrs. Hy Wiseman of Walnut Creek was in charge of the festival and was assisted by the Sunday School teachers.

Assemblyman Robert L. Condon, Democratic nominee for Congress, accompanied Governor Adlai Stevenson on his motor tour through the Sixth Congressional District yesterday and introduced the presidential candidate at Richmond and Vallejo. Stevenson gave a brief talk at Richmond City Hall.

In addition to Condon and other party dignitaries, Judge S. C. Masterson, Democratic nominee for the Assembly, 11th District, was with Stevenson.

Condon appeared on the platform with Stevenson at the Cow Palace in San Francisco Wednesday night.

'Country Girl' in Berkeley on Monday

The Broadway hit play, Clifford Odets' "The Country Girl," starring Robert Young, Dane Clark and Nancy Kelly, will be presented at the Berkeley Community Theater Monday night for one engagement only.

Paula Stone and Mike Sloane are the producers.

Sen. Powers Denies Backing of Condon

Senator Harold J. Powers of Eagleville, Modoc County, president pro tem of the California State Senate, has issued a statement denying any endorsement of the candidacy of Robert L. Condon, Democratic nominee for Congress in the Sixth District, it was announced by Lindsey Spight of Orinda, general chairman of the campaign of John F. Baldwin, Republican nominee.

Senator Powers said: "It has come to my attention that during the primary campaign in the Sixth Congressional District, the committee supporting the Democratic nominee indicated I had endorsed their candidate. I wish to take this opportunity of advising the voters of the Sixth Congressional District that I did not endorse or support the Democratic nominee."

"John F. Baldwin, the Republican nominee, is a very responsible citizen, and it has been my understanding that he has distinguished himself as a serviceman in World War II and also has participated in many civic and community activities."

Ike's Birthday Feted

A birthday party for Dwight Eisenhower was held Monday by the Young Republican Club of Walnut Creek at its Ramona Theater headquarters.

Condon Manager Asks: Are 'Goblins' on Job?

With Halloween only a couple of weeks away, Robert L. Condon's congressional campaign manager, Paul D. Ward, says he's wondering if it's goblins at work in Walnut Creek, or vandals, or just Republican badgers. He reports he has received complaints from Democratic supporters in Walnut Creek that Condon quarter cards on telephone poles are being torn down and other wise defaced.

"We don't know who the perpetrator is, and we can't believe responsible Republican leaders would condone the practice," Ward said, "but we do know that none of our Democratic workers would stoop to such tactics. We're running an open campaign in an effort to let the voters of this district decide after hearing the issues presented. Bob Condon himself will allow no retaliatory tactics to be employed on his behalf, and as his campaign manager neither will I."

Parties Honor Doyle

Assembly candidate Don Doyle attended three neighborhood coffee parties last week sponsored by the Young Republican Club of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. J. G. Knowlton, 1691 Lilac Drive, organized the get-togethers and was assisted by Mrs. Phil Knox, 1110 Walker Avenue, and Mrs. King Parker Jr., 110 La Balsa.

With four noted merchandising and sales experts as speakers, between 200 and 300 businessmen and women are expected to attend the first annual Business Sales Institute to be held jointly by East Contra Costa Junior College and county chambers of commerce Wednesday afternoon and evening on the new college campus.

The afternoon program will start at 2 o'clock with registration in the campus assembly building. Harry G. Swift, San Francisco industrial engineer, will speak on "A Professional Looks at Selling" at 2:30. An hour later, Earl Bogue, superintendent of H. Liebes and Company, San Francisco, will discuss "Organization to Complete the Sale."

AT 7:30 P.M. David E. Faville, professor of marketing at Stanford University, will talk on "Dynamics of Merchandising." Walter E. Eliason, specialist for the U.S. Department of Commerce, will present an hour's address on "Do You Know How To Sell" at 8:30.

There is no admission fee. Those not able to attend all, are invited to be present for either afternoon or evening programs.

LELAND MEDSKER, college director, and Robert A. Nelson, coordinator of business and distributive education, contacted chambers of commerce in Antioch, Brentwood, Concord, Lafayette, Martinez, Orinda, Pittsburg and Walnut Creek before scheduling the institute, and in every case were assured it would be received enthusiastically by business people.
